Opiumists. With Sir Thos. Wade we are ready to accept the perfect good faith and integrity of the Anti-Opiumists, as we should with any scheme established to prevent the abuse of the use of opium, alcohol, tobacco or whatever form it assumes. But we deplore the mass of exaggeration and the misstatements made in face of clear evidence. We have always frankly admitted that opium taken to excess injures the individual, and becomes a vice for his sin, which may also involve others, rather than the just administration of justice.

London, 22nd April.
The Marchioness of Cambridge arrived at London yesterday evening.

THE STAR TO VISIT BERLIN.

In the match played at Paris this evening between the Paris and London Football Clubs, being the first international match of the kind ever played, the English team won by three goals to nothing.

THE NEW ITALIAN MINISTRY.

ROME, 19th April.

The Italian Ministry has been reformed. The correspondence that has taken place between Sir E. Baring and the Egyptian Foreign Minister has been published. The Foreign Minister declined to assent to the territorial rights of Egypt being imposed in any way, and only assented to the prolongation of the Sultan's armistice on the understanding that the telegram from His Majesty regarding Siam should form part thereof.

LONDON, 16th April.

The correspondence that has taken place between Sir E. Baring and the Egyptian Foreign Minister has been published. The Foreign Minister declined to assent to the territorial rights of Egypt being imposed in any way, and only assented to the prolongation of the Sultan's armistice on the understanding that the telegram from His Majesty regarding Siam should form part thereof.

THE LEADING OF THE SULTAN'S ARMY.

Cairo, 14th April.

General Pasha has given the Sultan's command investing Prince Abbas as Khedive, and also read the Sultan's telegram confirming on him the administration of the Province of Sina.

ENGLAND AND THE TERRITORIAL BORDERS OF EGYPT.

LONDON, 17th April.

The fresh difficulties have arisen between Turkey and Egypt, and the Sultan has telegraphed to the High Commissioner of the Port of Sina (interfering in the internal affairs of the country).

Cairo, 17th April.

The fresh difficulties that have arisen between Turkey and Egypt have been removed. Turkey should lay a substantial premium on the cultivation in the Native States of India, from which it would be impossible to prevent smuggling; the Persian sources of supply would also be largely stimulated, while those with the Indian subjects would be lessened.

TURKEY AND EGYPT.

LONDON, 17th April.

Fresh difficulties have arisen between Turkey and Egypt, and the Sultan has telegraphed to the High Commissioner of the Port of Sina (interfering in the internal affairs of Egypt).

THE RESUME OF MR. JOHNSON IN NASSAU.

LONDON, 18th April.

The Times in discussing the reverses suffered by Mr. Johnson and his party in Nassau, says that he cannot be left to perish like General Gordon was at Khartoum, unless the Government of China, in the interests of the Sikhs, interfere.
